

Metering control unit

Benchtop housing

- Plastic benchtop housing, 370 x 330 x 200 mm with positioning frame
- Built-in touch panel for the operation, data entry and error messages in plain text
- Indicator light with buzzer for error messages
- Device plug with main switch
- USB interface for programme updates, system data and dosing program backup/recovery and data archiving (optional)
- Sensors and actuators pass through the cable glands in the back of the housing into the control unit
- Upgradeable for further extensions and options

Wall housing

- Sheet metal wall housing, 400 x 400 x 210 mm with fixing brackets
- Door closes with a special key
- 7" Touch screen control panel for the operation, data entry and error messages in plain text
- Indicator light with buzzer for error messages
- Main switch as emergency stop switch
- USB interface for programme updates, system data and dosing program backup/recovery and data archiving (optional)
- Sensors and actuators pass through the cable glands in the bottom of the housing into the control unit

